

Cesar Chavez and the UFW Reading Questions

1. What is so significant about the UFW?
2. What group of people would always end up in the fields?
3. Why did some of the earliest attempts to unionize fail?
4. In order to pass the 1936 National Labor Relations Act what had to happen?
5. What was the bracero program?
6. What was not taken into account when trying to organize the farm workers?
7. Why was the NFWA not called a union initially?
8. Why did Chavez choose to use non-violence?
9. What did Cesar Chavez do in 1968 to revitalize the movement?

10. How many Americans helped participate in the grape strike?
11. What did the farmworkers win?
12. After the major victory of the grape strike what happened next?
13. Why was there so much dislike for the Teamsters?
14. What legislation allowed the UFW to regain control of the negotiations of the farm workers?
15. What led to the downfall of the UFW's mission?
16. What impact did the UFW have on the American labor movement?