

Ch. 14 – Western Crossroads Review

Bureau of Indian Affairs –

1851 Treaty of Fort Laramie –

John M. Chivington –

Sand Creek Massacre –

Second Treaty of Fort Laramie –

Little Bighorn –

Sitting Bull –

George Armstrong Custer –

Crazy Horse –

Ghost Dance –

Wovoka –

Standing Rock Reservation –

Wounded Knee –

Chief Joseph –

Nez Perce –

Geronimo –

Dawes General Allotment Act –

American Indian Schools –

Homestead Act –

Pacific Railway Act –

Morrill Act –

Railroads –

Who moved west –

Exodusters –

Resources on the Plains –

Sod Houses –

U.S. Department of Agriculture –

New Farming Equipment –

Bonanza Farm –

Willa Cather –

Weather on the Plains –

Texas Longhorn –

Cowboys –

Long Drives –

Life on the Trail –

Railhead –

Cattle Towns –

Open Range –

Ranch Life –

Barbed Wire –

Joseph Glidden –

Rise and Fall of Cattle Industry –

Comstock Lode –

Patio Process –

William H. Seward –

Life in Mining Communities –

What were Western Mining Communities Like –

Hydraulic Mining –

Hard-rock Mining –

Mining Unions –

Possible Essay Questions

What role did the United States Government play in the expansion and movement westward? Explain

Explain what life in mining communities was like