

Civil War Battles and People Project

For the next couple of days you will be working on a civil war project. For this project you will work independently and use toondoo.com to create your own comic describing your battle or person. You will be required to make a comic book with at least 5 pages that meets all the requirements listed below. The rubric for this assignment will be on our class website.

Requirements Battles:

- Location of battles and troop movements if known
- Identification of participants, key generals
- Strategic Significance: how does it contribute to overall outcome of war
- Advantages and disadvantages of each side at beginning of battle
- Strategies used by both sides

Requirements Generals:

- Background info
- Battles participated in
- Greatest win and loss
- Importance to their side, if known
- Side they fought on
- Strategies used

Battles:

- Fort Sumter
- Bull Run (Manassas)
- Antietam
- Gettysburg
- Vicksburg
- Richmond
- Sherman's March to the Sea
- Monitor vs. Merrimack

People:

- Robert E. Lee
- Ulysses S. Grant
- Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson
- William Tecumseh Sherman
- P.G.T. Beauregard
- Albert Sidney Johnston
- George Custer
- George McClellan

<http://www.civilwaracademy.com/civil-war-generals.html> - good site for generals